

Advisory Group

Sgt. John Moore, Nathan Presnal, Mike Patrick, Alisa Prendergast, Rich Stone, Judy Corridon, Glen Bjorklund, Steve Bassett

Sgt. John Moore, U.S. Army

Sgt. Moore enlisted the United States Army in 2004. His Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) is 13F which is a forward observer or FO. He has two deployments to Iraq under his belt, the second one resulted in his Stryker Armored Combat Vehicle hitting an Improvised Explosive Device (IED). He was the only one seriously injured in the explosion and is a below-the-knee amputee of the left leg. The injury has not stopped him from doing what he wants. He loves to play golf and has been playing for about three years. "Overall, I would say that I am very happy to have 'NoClu!' what I am doing on the golf course," he said.

Nathan Presnal, Head Pro, Lake Presidential Golf Club

Nathan was chosen as the Head Professional at Lake Presidential after his three-year tenure at Chevy Chase Club (MD). Prior to Chevy Chase, he was an assistant at the Essex County Club on Boston's North Shore, where famed course designer Donald Ross lived and worked for seven years. Nathan also spent time at the exclusive Heritage Club in Mason, Ohio as the club's First Assistant Professional. A PGA member since 2003, Nathan is an accomplished teacher of the game and an accomplished player- winning several events in the Ohio and Mid-Atlantic regions. A graduate of Methodist University, Nathan also attended Boston University and Endicott College.

Mike Patrick, ESPN Sportscaster

Mike has been the lead sportscaster for ESPN for more than two decades. For 19 years he teamed with former Redskins Quarterback Joe Theismann and former NFL standout Paul McGuire on ESPN's Sunday Night NFL telecasts. He has also called college football for ESPN and ABC Sports, men's and women's college basketball including the Women's Final Four, and the College World Series for the network. In 2009, Mike will be teamed with former SMU running back Craig James and Heather Cox on a Saturday ESPN on ABC college football. Mike also did the play-by-play for Atlantic Coast Conference Football and Basketball games for Jefferson-Pilot (now Lincoln Financial Sports) between 1984 and 1986, and was a sportscaster in Washington, DC and Jacksonville, FL. Mike does the play-by-play for the Washington Redskins preseason football games on Washington's WUSA-TV/9 and Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic.

Alisa Prendergast, Cyberonyx, International

Alisa was born and raised in the Washington, DC area. She attended Penn State on a swimming scholarship and graduated with a Bachelor's of Art degree in Fine Art. She was a Fairfax County police officer for more than six years. During that time, she went back to NOVA and the University of Maryland for an Information Systems degree. She became a web developer/programmer in 2000 and along with husband Phil started Cyberonyx International in 2001. She also dabbles in home renovations. She began playing golf around 1998 and by 2004 was a five handicap. She was a multiple gold medal winner in swimming in 2006 at the International Police games and 2007 World Police and Fire games (swimming). Her artwork has been shown in the Corcoran Museum of Art. Currently she is into cycling and triathlons.

Rich Stone (USN Retired)

Rich retired from the United States Navy in 2003 after a 20-year career. He was an enlisted Naval Aviator whose job was to look for submarines while flying around in the P-3 Orion aircraft. Currently, he is a Research and Technology Protection Engineer for the Naval Air Systems Command at Patuxent River, MD. Previously, he spent five years at the Federal Bureau of Investigation specializing in Counterterrorism activities, specifically Terrorist Financing.

Judy Corridon, Sales & Design Consultant, Ambius

Judy is a native Washingtonian, and raised in Prince Georges County where she attended public schools until graduating from BHS. After graduation, she gravitated to Hampton, Virginia; on to Richmond and finally settling in Virginia Beach, where she raised a son and daughter. While there she developed a passion for pottery. Her artistic creations soon became eligible to enter into juried Arts and Crafts Shows throughout the state. As the chairperson for Exhibits for the Ceramic Designers Association, she organized events and demonstrations for Watersides, Busch Gardens and Fest Events. Before relocating to Annapolis, Judy owned the Heart and Hand Gallery, in Virginia Beach and was president of the Merchant Association for Countryside Shops. She now works as a Sales and Design Consultant for Ambius, and has earned the honor of belonging to it's President's Club because of her outstanding performances for her company.

Glen Bjorklund, NoClu! Golf General Partner

Glen is a career federal employee with more than 36 years of federal service. During his long career, he has worked for a number of the federal government's departments and agencies, all in the Washington, DC area. Glen is currently the Deputy Director, Division of Administration for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) , where he has executive management responsibility for a nationwide service organization that provides human resources, procurement, leasing, property management and logistical services to the FDIC's more than 6,000 employees across the United States. He is life-long resident of the Washington, DC/Baltimore, MD area and graduated from Bladensburg High School in 1968. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Maryland at College Park with High Honors and has completed numerous management and executive training programs while with the federal government, including the Federal Executive Institute in Charlottesville, Virginia. Glen enjoys watching the Ravens and Terps; playing NoClu! golf; exercising, and reading. He resides in Ellicott City, Maryland with his wife, Bobbie and West Highland Terrier, Maddox after helping two grown children successfully flee the nest.

Steve Bassett, NoClu! Golf General Partner

Steve Bassett is chairman & CEO of The Communications Workshop, LLC serving clients in the areas of disaster response, news media and communications planning, training and consulting. He is an instrument-rated pilot trained by the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) in Aircraft Accident Investigation. He was also trained by the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF) in Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM). During his aviation career he served as president of the United States Air Tour Association (USATA), executive vice president of Air Vegas Airlines, and senior vice president of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA). Prior to aviation, Steve was a network (NBC Sports) and major market television and radio sports broadcaster. He has authored numerous papers on crisis management and effective communications and testifies often before committees of the U.S. Congress on aviation matters. He is a Vietnam combat veteran and Bronze Star recipient and served with a Recon unit of the prestigious 4th Infantry Division and Americal Division.

